COMMENTS: Candidate sent in his waiver request by certified mail and states that he is sincerely sorry for the mistakes he made in his campaign. He said that he takes full responsibility for his mistakes and that he ran his own campaign with very little help. He said he was working full time and campaigning and concentrating on learning his duties as constable he overlooked the details of his election paperwork. He states that the fines will be a hardship on him and his family, he said he will not make the mistakes again.
